

Parapsychology: CIA testing Uri Geller

Description

The CIA was very interested in various methods to manipulate and exploit the human mind. Besides illegal experiments which involved psychotropic drugs and torture, they were also interested in parapsychology as the document at hand shows.

The objective of this group of experimental sessions was to verify Geller's apparent paranormal perception under carefully controlled conditions with the goal of understanding the physical and psychological variables underlying such ability.

Category

1. Cognitive science
2. General
3. Politics
4. Primary documents
5. Social psychology
6. Sociology

Date Created

10. January 2019

Author

web45